To Whom It May Concern,

Lelan Callaway has helped our church accomplish two major capitol projects: The purchase and development of 40 acres on the Grand Parkway in Katy, Texas and the construction of our 35,000 square foot facility. Because I am the senior pastor at Westland, most of the decisions for these projects would have been my responsibility. However, during these projects I was able to invest my time and energy in leading Westland because Lelan was our consultant.

All of the people who worked with Lelan enjoyed his company and appreciated his thoroughness. The evidence of his ability and commitment are clearly seen in the finished product, which is the newly completed Westland campus. I still call on Lelan for advice and I will ask Lelan to help us in future efforts.

Sincerely,

Roy Meadows

To Whom It May Concern:

From the summer of 1999 through the spring of 2001, Lelan Callaway coordinated the facility project of CrossPoint Community Church. For over 18 months, he served as the project manager, overseeing the design, site work, facility construction, and final punch list of our project.

The project consisted of a 39,000 square foot multi-purpose facility that includes a worship center/gymnasium, preschool classrooms, commons and administrative suite; site work on 46 acres; and paved drives and parking for approximately 300 cars.

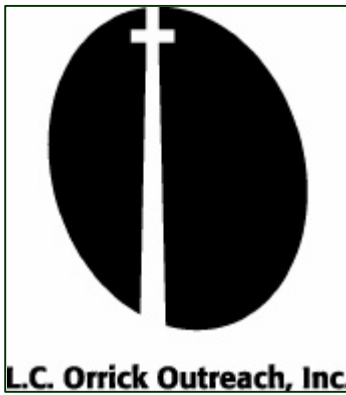

Lelan is an incredibly conscientious, dependable, and knowledgeable man of God whose dedication and wisdom were phenomenal. The project would not have turned out so successfully without his leadership and guidance.

He would be a blessing in any type of leadership position where he encourages people towards a common goal, especially in facility design and construction.

Sincerely,

Bill R. Woolsey

Dear Amarillo Churches, Pastors, and Citizens,

Our loss is your gain, and I want you to know why. Lelan Callaway has located in your area, and we will miss him, but I want you to know what a wonderful gift God is sending you. Behind that quiet smile is a man of prayer with a deep, authentic faith. He has a wealth of experience in management, ministry, and life in a variety of cultural settings.

If you ask see his resume, you will be amazed by the work he has done in business and the volunteer work he has done to help churches and non-profits like ours through the years. In retirement, he has given himself as to projects he felt God was calling him to help.

The son of missionary parents, God has gifted him with the ability to help make things happen in a progressive, gentle way. In business, Lelan managed complex projects in far flung areas of the globe, helping things work out when cultures, governments, and business made things delicate. In ministry, Lelan knows not only how to manage building projects, computer systems, and other ministry tasks, but also how to help God's purposes move along when views differ and things need to be smoothed out.

L.C. Orrick Outreach, Inc., of which I am president, has been fortunate to have him a part of our board of Trustees during the past two years. He has offered himself generously to our ministry and several other churches and helping ministries in the greater Brookshire / Katy, Texas area.

I commend him highly to you. I would be happy speak with you further, if it would be helpful.

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write a pastoral letter of introduction for my good friend, Mr. Lelan Callaway. We have served together in the Christian ministry for the past several years, and I have especially benefited from his mentorship. Lelan has been one of the most influential encouragers in my young ministry (I have served as a full-time pastor for the past seven years). I treasure his friendship and love.

Lelan and I met at a pastors' prayer meeting in Katy, Texas where I witnessed his profound giftedness for helping others. "The ministry of helps" is certainly one of his most remarkable spiritual gifts as he brings ministers of the Gospel and other spiritual leaders together. His passion is certainly the building up of the body of Christ for the advancement of the Kingdom. He loves God's Word and is a faithful proclaimer and teacher of the Scriptures. Ever the peacemaker without compromising the truth, Lelan is truly a "Kingdom builder" as he focuses on what unites believers from many different churches and expressions of the Christian faith.

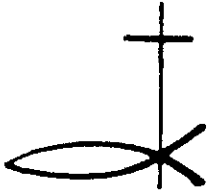

Prior to Lelan's relocation to Amarillo, he and I prayed regularly on Tuesday mornings with other pastors from the far west Houston area. He has been a faithful participant in many other prayer and fellowship gatherings. Lelan truly lives a life of fervent prayer.

Several years ago, Lelan helped me to establish the Brookshire-Pattison Area Christian Alliance (west of Houston). His leadership skills as a facilitator and peacemaker have been a tremendous blessing for countless churches and individuals. He faithfully uses his gifts in communication and networking to promote an authentic spirit of unity among Christians. He has also used his expertise in the area of computer science to "come to the rescue" of numerous churches, ministries and individuals.

Lelan Callaway is a man of integrity who loves the Lord Jesus Christ, His Word and His Church. He is a faithful family man who models Christian character in so many ways. He and his precious wife, Cinda, have reared three children in the love of the Lord. When I think of Lelan, I remember the words of the apostle Paul when he declared, "I will not presume to speak of anything but what Christ has accomplished through me" (Romans 15:18). Whatever Lelan does, he does it with all his heart for the Lord. I commend him to you as a true friend and faithful servant of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Sincerely yours,

Dear LeLan:

I trust all goes well with you and Cinda in your move to the Panhandle of Texas. I know you are both busy caring for family needs. God bless you for your willingness to move out there and care for Cinda's dad and other family members.

I wanted to thank you again for all you did to be a blessing to the churches of Katy these past several years. Your gift of "helps" has been a source of constant encouragement to the pastors and other ministry leaders in the area. I know God has blessed you for this and He will continue to use you in significant ways.

The following is for any church or ministry leadership who may not know you as well as we do here.

To Whomever It May Concern:

I am happy to introduce you to LeLan and Cinda Callaway as newcomers in your area. The Callaways have been, until recently, residents of Katy-Brookshire (Houston suburbs) and very active in many Christ-honoring ministries. LeLan was awarded the outstanding layman award for his work with Katy Christian Ministries. (In fact, that award is now called "The LeLan Callaway Outstanding Layman Award".)

In addition, LeLan was very instrumental in starting and sustaining the very effective THE KATY CHURCH, a 12-year endeavor of some 20 to 25 churches and ministries in the Katy area. TKC exists to pray for the spiritual welfare of all life –giving churches and ministries in the metro Katy area as well as to encourage pastors to pray for and help one another. (See www.thekatychurch.org for more information.)

Though LeLan and Cinda have been members of Baptist churches, they are kingdom people who long to see all life-giving churches and ministries prosper.

LeLan is very wise in all facets of engineering type endeavors and has served as (gratis) Building-Supervisor for some of the churches that have built facilities in the Katy area. Westland Baptist Church and Holy Apostles Episcopal churches are examples.

The kingdom-minded churches and ministries of Amarillo will be blessed if LeLan is welcomed as a good brother and potential valuable part of the community.

Feel free to call me if anybody has any questions or would like to discuss this letter with me.

God bless the life-giving churches and ministries of Amarillo.

Dear Pastors and Ministry Leaders:

Katy Christian Ministries had the opportunity and blessing of working with Lelan and Cinda Callaway for over 7 years. My relationship with Lelan began in July of 2001. The Board of Trustees for Katy Christian Ministries ask me to fill in as interim Executive Director. The previous Executive Director had the position for 10 years and decided to leave. Those were very dark days in my life, I had been placed in a position that I knew nothing about, I had to put all my faith and trust in God. After being in the position a couple of weeks, I received a call from Lelan one day and he wanted to come in and see me, I had no clue what this was about. In our first meeting he ask what he could do to help me, all I could do was cry and tell him this job was way over my head. He stepped in and began a great work for KCM. Our computers were in bad shape and our data base was a disaster. He began by training all the staff on computers and he started working on the data base. He also started praying for the ministry and all of the employees. God started doing some great and mighty things.

We started a building campaign and Lelan was our Supervisor, he sat through hours of meetings with our Board and Staff. This went on for a while and we finally built our building.

I could go on and on about Lelan has done for KCM and still does via email, however the most important thing he did for KCM was to show my staff and I a true man of integrity. When he told us he and Cinda had decided to move, I wanted to boycott prayers, I didn't know what we do without him. He brought us another wonderful man to help us, however no one will ever take his place.

Lelan and Cinda will be a blessing to any church or ministry. They both have giving servants hearts. Our loss is your gain.

RE: Lelan Callaway
DATE: March 24, 2006

Lelan and Cinda Callaway, former Kingsland Baptist Church members, have recently settled in Amarillo as they take the next step on their life's journey. It is hard to convey sufficiently the praise they are due. Both Lelan and Cinda have given fine leadership and faithful service in the congregation and community for many years. Their life is a testimony, inspiration and a blessing to us all.

Lelan has been active in our congregation for several years. He had a vision and started our men's prayer group in October of 1991. In 1995 Lelan joined the Men's Ministry Coordinating Council of Kingsland Baptist Church that ended up taking over 150 KBC men to Promise Keepers at the Astrodome. After coming back he started up at least 25 men's accountability groups at Kingsland during the summer of 1995. Also, many men's retreats, breakfasts, brown-bag lunches, time-out lunches, car clinic's and home repair ministries were birthed and nurtured by Lelan.

The depth of Lelan's faith and the dedication he has to the Lord certainly qualifies him for any undertaking he may consider. The kingdom will benefit as his gifts are shared among more of God's people in the Amarillo area.

In Christ,

Alex Kennedy
